With 2 days in London, there's plenty of time to explore this buzzing cosmopolitan capital, where black taxis and red double-decker buses flash past historic buildings. See London's iconic buildings and UNESCO World Heritage sites on tour-learn about Big Ben, the Royal Family's place of residence, Buckingham Palace, the horror tales of the Tower of London, and Westminster Abbey, where Princess Diana's funeral service was held.

With your included day pass for the London Underground take advantage of the tube system. Use it like a local and move around the city at your own pace exploring this vibrant city! (B)

During your time in London, there's also an optional excursion to see the UNESCO World Heritage site of Stonehenge. Choose to get up close to the famous ring of stones and learn more about the legends surrounding them.

Also we visit Bath to see this gorgeous city, complete with terraces, promenades and heritage buildings. Get the background on the city's name and Roman past in an optional excursion to the stunning Roman Baths.

On your last night in London experience a bit of London culture by seeing a famous West End musical – it's on us! Afterward, London has it all; jazz bars, traditional pubs, and loads of live music- dive into the action! (B)

We hit the road and take a ferry past the White Cliffs of Dover. Travel past World War 1 battle fields in the Valley of the Somme to Paris.
