Overnighting in Boothbay Harbor, we have a full day in this coastal village to enjoy its shops, eateries, and picture-perfect harbors.

We visit Freeport, Maine, then into New Hampshire seeing the scenic White Mountains, New England's greatest range and premier outdoor playground. Drive the renowned Kancamagus Scenic Byway, visit Dartmouth College, then into Vermont for a visit to a living history museum & a working dairy farm; visit Woodstock—a village noted for its well-preserved homes and visit a maple syrup farm. In Hyannis on Cape Cod, enjoy time to explore on your own or take a ferry to Nantucket Island, one of the most historic and scenic places in the world. On your way back to Boston, visit Plymouth and the Plimoth Plantation, where costumed interpreters portray the early 17th-century lifestyle of the Pilgrims. ## Itinerary

Day 1 Thursday, Oct. 7

Boston

Welcome to Boston- “Bean Town!” Depending on your arrival time, relax or start exploring before our get-together this evening. Your tour escort is on hand this evening to answer any questions.

Day 2 Friday, Oct. 8

Boston

Boston’s landmarks reflect the part this city played in the history of the U.S.-we’ll see a lot of them on our guided morning tour: Faneuil Hall, Old North Church (where Paul Revere was signaled of the departure of British troops to Lexington), and Boston Common. Our afternoon is at leisure to explore with new friends from the group-get suggestions for things to do from our guide.

Day 3 Saturday, Oct. 9

Boston-Kennebunkport-Portland-Boothbay Harbor

This morning we head north to Maine, stopping in Kennebunkport, the summer retreat of many artists and writers who have found the picturesque setting conducive to creativity. Next we visit the historic maritime city of Portland-stroll the cobblestone streets of the famous Old Port Exchange lined with many boutiques, coffee houses, and art galleries and on our tour see Portland Head Lighthouse and this beautiful coastal region. We continue to Boothbay Harbor, rich in history and where we’ll be staying for 2 nights.

Day 4 Sunday, Oct. 10

Boothbay Harbor

Today, a FULL DAY to leisurely explore Boothbay Harbor- the soul of Maine’s coast. See the picturesque downtown with its unique shops and handcrafted goods or take a walk along the rocky shoreline. Maybe an afternoon cruise past summer colonies, lighthouses, small islands, and sunbathing seals or relax dockside and watch the harbor with fishing vessels and pleasure crafts—nothing beats the sight of the schooners heading in from an afternoon trip with their sails bathed in the rosy light of a spectacular sunset. Tonight, maybe a delicious optional lobster dinner featuring the fresh native lobster for which coastal Maine is renowned. (B)

Day 5 Monday, Oct.11

Boothbay Harbor-Freeport-Shelburne-North Conway

Today we visit the town of Freeport, the “Birthplace of Maine” and home to L.L. Bean before heading to the fabulous White Mountains of New Hampshire. Enjoy the land of covered bridges, quaint towns, and forests noted for their foliage of contrasting fall colors. In Shelburne, explore on your own or join the optional tram ride up Wildcat Mountain before a brief stop in Jackson, New Hampshire to photograph the Honeymoon Bridge. Then we overnight in North Conway, known for its beauty and quaintness. (B)

Day 6 Tuesday, Oct. 12

North Conway-Woodstock-Burlington

As you enjoy fall foliage in beautiful Vermont on our way to Burlington, we’ll visit Woodstock, a village noted for its well-preserved homes and charming village green and we’ll visit Billings Farm and Museum, a living museum of Vermont’s rural past as well as a working dairy farm. We overnight in Burlington which is located on the shores of Lake Champlain. Tonight, maybe a visit to Church Street in Burlington, the “Queen of Lake Champlain” and known for its quintessential charm and architectural beauty.

Day 7 Wednesday, Oct. 13

Today see Lake Champlain, situated in the Champlain Valley between the Green Mountains of Vermont and the Adirondack Mountains of New York before we stop in Montpelier, Vermont’s picturesque capital city. Also visit a Maple Syrup Farm before lunch in Concord, New Hampshire’s capital and financial center. Continuing on we head to the Cape Cod resort town of Hyannis.

This evening is at leisure for independent activities and maybe dinner with new friends from the group.

Day 8 Thursday, Oct. 14

Hyannis

Today is a FULL FREE day for exploring with friends from the group. Maybe a ferry ride to Nantucket Island, one of the most unique, historic, and visually stunning places in the world. Originally a booming whaling port, Nantucket has been named a National Historic District and has architecturally changed little since the 17th century. Seaside cottages and old-fashioned lamps still line its streets. Sign on for a guided tour of the island or pick up a picnic lunch and rent a bike, a good way to discover Nantucket on your own. Walk the cobblestone streets and take in the boutique shops or explore the art galleries and museums.
