

South America!

Rio de JaneiroIguassu FallsBuenos Aires
November 19-November 27/28, 2011

Come join us for a wonderful trip to the best of South America where we'll visit Rio de Janeiro, Iguassu Falls, and then end our stay in exciting Buenos Aires, Argentina! Last year's trip was fun!

We'll start our journey with 3 nights in Rio de Janeiro with our hotel near famed Copacabana Beach. Sightseeing includes taking the cable car to the top of Sugar Loaf Mountain for great views of the very picturesque bay and visit famous Corcovado, Rio's highest mountain crowned by the statue Christ the Redeemer. Also, time to explore Rio with new friends from the group too!

Next, we'll head to Iguassu Falls, one of the most impressive natural displays in the world. We'll take walking tours along the trails on both the Brazil and Argentina sides of the falls, crossing the border to do so. See dramatic close-up views of the falls and have a thrilling encounter with the 'Devil's Throat'.

Then we fly to Buenos Aires, Argentina, known as the 'Paris of South America'. See the beautiful public squares and parks of this wonderful city, including Plaza de Mayo, Plaza del Congreso, Palermo Park, Recoleta Cemetery where Evita is buried, the president's residence and Avenida 9 de Julio, the world's widest boulevard. Also enjoy a tango show!

Come join us on this great trip to experience the best of what South America has to offer!

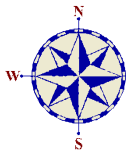

Don't miss out on this fun and affordable trip!! We've had a lot of requests for South America and expect a good group to sign up again this year!!

USA / Rio de Janeiro

Depart the USA/Canada aboard your flight to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil!

Day 2, Sun. Nov 20

Rio de Janeiro

You'll arrive in Rio this morning and transfer to our hotel near the famed Copacabana Beach! You can start exploring or rest and then in the afternoon we'll have a tour to Sugar Loaf Mountain. We begin the two-stage ascent by cable car to the top of Sugar Loaf for breathtaking views of Guanabara Bay and Rio. After our return to our hotel we'll enjoy a welcome cocktail party/mixer. Dinner this evening is at leisure with new friends from the group.

Our Hotel-Rio de Janeiro – Portinari Design Hotel (3 nights)

The Hotel has only 66 rooms on 11 floors and the rooms are equipped with Queen size beds; feather pillows; 21-inches flat screen TV; Air conditioning; broadband access to Internet; hair dryer; 24-hour room service and welcome drink. Rates include breakfast and the use of the fitness center on rooftop

Day 3, Mon. Nov 21

Corcovado

A free day to explore with others from the group and your social host will coordinate some activities for you too! Lots to do and see in this exciting city! (B)

Day 4, Tues. Nov 22

Day at Leisure

Today is a free day to relax and enjoy this city. Your Singles Travel Company representative will have some ideas for fun things to see and do or check out the shopping, museums, and local sights. Make sure you read about some things to do in Rio to make sure you see what you want to see! (B)

Day 5, Wed. Nov 23

Rio to Iguassu Falls

We fly away from vibrant Rio to explore one of the world's greatest natural wonders, Iguassu Falls. You will hear the falls' mighty thunder even before you see them! We'll enjoy an extended walking tour of the falls, culminating with a knock out view of the main part of the Falls, called the Devil's Throat. From the Brazil side we'll have panoramic views of the entire 2 ½ miles of falls, and you will view the Devil's Throat from the bottom up. After the tour we'll be transferred to our hotel for overnight. (B)

Our Hotel-Iguassu Falls area- Bourbon Hotel (1 night)

Strategically located on the Brazilian border with Argentina, the Bourbon sits in perfect harmony with nature, set amidst a 165,000 square-meter area and features a full infrastructure for business, leisure and sports activities. It is close to the region's most popular tourist attraction, the majestic Iguazu Falls, with its 295 breathtaking cascades. Amenities: Private baths, cable TV, telephone, air cond., refrigerator, safe, internet, 24 hours room service, minibar.

The Iguassú Falls are located at the border of Brazil and Argentina with National Parks on both sides of the falls. 70% of Iguassu Falls is located on Argentinean territory, but most of the Falls face Brazil, so it is advisable to see the Falls from both the Brazilian and Argentinean sides. The natural border between the countries is the Iguassu River.

The falls are in a horseshoe form, 1.6 miles wide between the two countries and these Falls are 60 feet higher than falls at Niagara Falls and about one and a half times as wide. The biggest attraction is "Devil's Throat" where the largest volume of water passes with a strong and impressive roar that can be heard several miles away. The Falls are without a doubt majestic and breathtaking. The environment is rich in vegetation and fauna and there are about 400 species of birds including five members of the toucan family and over 100 species of butterflies.

Day 6, Thurs. Nov 24

Iguassu Falls to Buenos Aires

We have a morning departure for Argentina, where we'll have a whole new view of the falls. We cross into Argentina via the Friendship Bridge and clear Argentine customs. Then walk along the river's edge where a myriad of flora and fauna inhabits this semi-tropical area. We'll cross small bridges over tiny waterfalls, climb up the embankment to lookout points, and finally arrive at the main part of the falls, the Devil's Throat. On the Argentine side you will be able to walk in and out of the falls, and you can view the Devil's Throat from the top down. Time for some lunch at the visitor center after the tour before we are transferred to the airport on the Argentine side of the falls for our flight to cosmopolitan Buenos Aires.

On arrival in Buenos Aires, we're transferred to our hotel where the rest of the day is at leisure to start exploring this wonderful city! (B)

Our Hotel-Buenos Aires-Americas Towers (3 nights)

Situated in the heart of Buenos Aires, Americas Towers Hotel is close to Plaza Libertad, Teatro Colon, and Plaza San Martin. Also nearby are Plaza de Mayo and Casa Rosada. Hotel Features: has a fitness facility and a seasonal outdoor pool. Complimentary wireless Internet access is available in public areas. Business amenities include a business center and small meeting rooms. This Buenos Aires hotel offers a restaurant and a bar/lounge. Guests are served a complimentary breakfast. Additional amenities include multilingual staff, 24-hour room service, and an elevator (lift).

Day 7, Fri. Nov 25

Buenos Aires

See why Buenos Aires is called the "Paris of South America" on a half-day tour of this elegant city. Drive by the public squares and parks, including Plaza de Mayo, Plaza del Congreso and Palermo Park. See the Pink House (presidential palace), Colon Theater, 9th of July Avenue and visit Recoleta Cemetery where Evita is buried.

Our afternoon is at leisure and then this evening we enjoy our dinner and Tango Show! (B, D)

Day 8, Sat. Nov 26

Buenos Aires Day Free for optional tours

Today is a full free day to explore this wonderful city. Your group leader will have suggestions but make sure you research what you want to see. Maybe take an optional Gaucho Festival Tour which includes a full-day excursion into the Argentine pampas for an authentic Gaucho Festival and BBQ. You will have a demonstration of the gauchos' considerable skills at horsemanship, followed by songs and dances, and lots of great BBQ and wine. (Optional Tour price-$89) (B)

Day 9, Sun. Nov 27
